TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)
Gn 2:18–24 / Heb 2:9–11 / Mk 10:2–16 or 10:2–12

My mother was convinced that none of her children would get married. We were older when we were called to that vocation but, one by one, we did marry. I am happy to say that my husband and I continue to share this vocation three decades later, and we give our thanks to God. My sister was not as fortunate. After years of abuse, she divorced her husband. She did not make that decision lightly. She went into counseling, prayed, and talked. She considered her children, her husband, and herself. And she read and reread today's Gospel from Mark. In the end, her safety and the safety of her children was a major concern.

Jesus railed against the ease of divorce. A man had simply to hand his wife a piece of paper, and he could do so for any reason, including infertility and a failure to please him. But Jesus advances the woman's cause, refusing to allow her to be treated like a piece of property or disposed of at whim. He saw marriage as a sign of God's covenantal love and lifelong fidelity and exalts it as a sacrament. When both spouses commit themselves to each other and to their vocation, this grace is made manifest, and their bond is strengthened. But sin and human brokenness can interfere with God's plan, leaving separation or even divorce as the only option.

In the longer form of this reading, the people brought their children to Jesus, and he blessed them. Maybe we can do the same for those affected by abuse or divorce, so they too, at long last, can be healed.

How should we deliver the Sign of Peace?

What is the etiquette for the Sign of Peace? I attend Mass alone and feel awkward as family members hug and kiss as though they haven't seen each other in years but ignore me even though I'm standing right next to them.

The Sign of Peace is a time to acknowledge Christ's presence in the congregation. It comes immediately before Communion. It is not time for shaking hands with someone you haven't seen for a while or for running around the church greeting everyone. It is time for wishing peace to one another before we receive the Eucharist as one body.

Remember Christ's words: "If you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you...go first and be reconciled..." (Matthew 5:23–24). The Church's guidelines state, "in a sober manner, offer the sign of peace only to those who are nearest" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 82). They also say that local conferences of bishops should establish norms according to the customs of the people.

It is appropriate for husband and wife to kiss each other, or for parents to kiss their children; in some places an embrace is also appropriate. The important thing is to remember that Christ is present in our midst and to acknowledge that presence in one another. If you feel excluded, I would suggest you let them know after Mass. You can simply say, "I felt left out."
