A Thanksgiving Prayer

Lord God, all powerful and ever-loving, we ask You on this Thanksgiving Day to give us grateful hearts. Open our hearts so that we may enjoy the gifts

You have given us and see beauty around us in all Your creation. May we give thanks for the daily gifts of food, family and friends and especially enjoy these gifts with thanksgiving.

May we never take for granted the comfort of our homes, the blessings of our family and the knowledge of Your love. And though we sometimes feel the stress of our duties and cares, thank You for the grace You give us to see them through. When we come to the end of this day and every day thereafter, may our hearts still be grateful and our prayers full of thanksgiving. Amen

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

1 Kgs 17:10–16 / Heb 9:24–28 /

Mk 12:38–44 or 12:41–44

When my husband and I were first married, we did not have much money. I took the bus to work, and he ate peanut butter and honey sandwiches nearly every day. Chunky soup with rice was frequently on our dinner menu. Like many young couples, we struggled to make ends meet. One result of that experience was that we became very careful about how we spent money. Could we afford lunch at a restaurant once a month? How would we save for the future or budget for a growing family?

Also of concern was the amount we would donate to our Church. Clearly, large contributions were out of the question, but because income and expenses often varied, we even avoided pledging a set amount per week. Instead, we agreed to give something every week—as much as we thought we could afford. Some weeks it was a dollar; in weeks of plenty or good fortune, we gave a little more. Our children took great pride in putting whatever amount we had in the basket each Sunday.

Our finances are much less stressful these days. Our careers and income have been blessed, and we still support our Church, serve the poor, pay our ministers a living wage, and strive to make our parish a welcoming place for all. But whenever I read this Gospel passage I wonder, "Are we simply giving out of our surplus, or are we pushing ourselves to let go of some of our desires and dreams to help others in our midst?" We all should ask ourselves this question weekly, as my family did years ago.

What does laicized
mean?

What does it mean when a priest or permanent deacon is laicized? Is that the same as being excommunicated?

Short answer: They are not the same. Once a man is ordained a priest or permanent deacon, he remains that forever. Nothing and no one can change that. However, through laicization, the Vatican can release him from the obligation of exercising his sacramental responsibilities. If he celebrates a sacrament anyway, it is valid, but not legal in the eyes of the Church (licit).

A priest or deacon can be laicized voluntarily or involuntarily. Regardless, he is still a member of the Catholic Church and participates fully in its sacramental life. Excommunication, however, is a penalty in which a person—lay, religious, or ordained—is no longer in communion with the Church or part of its hierarchy. He or she can no longer receive the Eucharist, but as a baptized Catholic (and child of God) may still attend Mass, pray for enlightenment, and seek to understand the truth of Catholic teaching. Excommunication is not a judgment made by the Vatican; it is automatic upon rejecting a fundamental doctrine of the Church. One does not "get" excommunicated; one excommunicates oneself. The Church may simply issue a statement stating that the person's actions warranted this penalty if doing so will prevent or heal any existing scandal or benefit the public.
